

Twycross Zoo East Midland Zoological Society is a registered charity and aims to "care for our world's animals and environments through conservation, communication and integrity". The zoo claims to be the world's most comprehensive collection of primate species which over 500,000 visitors annually come to see. Twycross Zoo is a member of the British and Irish Association of Zoos and Aquariums (BIAZA), the World Association of Zoos and Aquariums (WAZA) and Wildlife Information Network (WIN) organisations which represent their member collections and promote the values of good zoos and aquariums.

This feature is indebted to the Marketing Department of the Twycross Zoo who faithfully provided us with press releases and information which we have used as source material for this feature as well as the lovely photos that can be seen on the web version of ZOOS' PRINT at www.zoosprint.org. Suzie Boardman is a friend of Zoo Outreach Organisation and Twycross Zoo has contributed funds to Zoo Outreach Organisation on various occasions, including conducting surveys to understand human/elephant conflict in four different South Asian countries.
