Call for donations

In the first phase of the fundraiser for the Sally Walker Conservation Fund, we target three objectives.

(i) The Sally Walker Lifetime Award for Conservation

(ii) The Sally Walker Training Programme in Conservation Biology and Application

(iii) Communicating Science for Conservation through innovative education programs

We solicit your generous contributions to the above activities of your choice. Please log onto our website www.zooreach.org and click on the SWCF page for information on how to donate.
