GET READY FOR ANIMAL WELFARE FORTNIGHTLY

More than 70 individuals, institutions and organisations celebrated Wildlife Week with threatened species materials from Zoo Outreach Organisation this year, the 50th anniversary of Wildlife Week. There were a few mishaps, damaged and straying parcels and late arrivals, but mostly people got their material in good shape and on time. Our office looked like one of those news stories about a hurricane or tornado after all the packets and posters were packed and sent. People ordered right up to the celebratory week and into it.

After cleaning the office and taking stock, we found that we have enough left over for insuring a very interesting Animal Welfare Fortnightly. This event is celebrated every year in the last two weeks of January under the auspices of the Animal Welfare Board of India. Every year ZOO makes some materials available, usually about animal welfare but others also.
